How much does the Praxis Core test Cost? Is there funding for the test?

If you take the Core Combined (all three sections together at the same time), the test fee is $150. If you take one section of the test at a time, the test fee is $90. Fee waivers are available on a first come, first-serve basis for students who qualify. Fee waivers are due prior to taking the test and need a signed statement from the Financial Aid Office. Read more on fee waivers here: <https://praxis.ets.org/test/takers/register-waivers>

How should I study for the Praxis Core?

We recommend beginning with Study.com Free Praxis Core Prep that can be found here: <https://praxis.ets.org/test-takers/study-free-praxis-core-prep>. This resource included diagnostic exams, instructional videos for content review, and practice tests.

Additional preparation materials (free and for purchase) can be found at: <https://praxis.ets.org/test-takers/resources-strategies>

When will I get my test scores?

Reading and math scores are available 10-11 business days after the test date. Writing scores are available 15-16 business days after the test dates. You can use this link to see when your scores will be available: <https://www.ets.org/get-scores>.

Scores can be viewed by logging into your ETS account. You should request during registration that ETS report your scores to UNC Charlotte.

How do I know if I have passed?

A total score (all three sections) of 468 means you have passed! You DO NOT have to pass each section to pass the test, just a 468 total.
